Edensor Care Centre provides care for residents with a variety of health and social needs. In our homely environment we offer person centred care for residents with nursing, residential and dementia needs and our professional team encourage all residents to retain their own independence.

We are currently looking for a motivated individual to join our catering team supporting the Chef in the preparation and presentation of a varied and nutritional menu to the residents within the Care Home and support them in selection of food and use of the facilities.

We operate a 24/7 52 weeks of the year service and this role will work an average of 23.25 hours per week over a seven day period.

We expect you to:

- To provide support in the provision of nutritious, healthy meals that our residents will love
- To support the provision of a first-class service that enables us to give our residents exceptional all-round care and support.
- To undertake all duties as required within the kitchen to ensure the area exceeds the standards required for hygiene.
- Provide support to the residents as required to ensure they enjoy a positive experience at all times.
- Support the wider care team by reporting any significant changes in the health, eating habits or circumstances of the residents
- Comply with all policies and procedures ensuring the safety of themselves colleagues and residents at all times

Essential:

- Strong communication and interpersonal skills
- Needs to demonstrate a caring and compassionate nature
- Previous experience within a similar environment
- Strong customer focus to support the provision of a professional service

Desirable:

- Related Qualification in catering or food hygiene
- Willingness to undergo further extensive training to improve knowledge and care standards within the home.
- Flexible approach to working patterns and care.

Benefits- in addition to the Salary we offer:

- Auto-enrolment pension scheme
- Employee healthcare scheme
- Discretionary company sick pay
- 5.8 weeks leave including bank holidays pro rata to your shift pattern and hours of work
